GOVERNOR OF WEST BENGAL

RAJ BHAVAN
KOLKATA 700 062

April 2, 2012

It is a matter of pride for all of us that the renowned High Court of Calcutta has completed 150 years of existence and the period from May 14, 2011 to May 14, 2012 has been declared as the Sesquicentenary Year.

I commend the fact that to commemorate the event, and on the occasion of the inaugural function being held on April 21, 2012, a souvenir will be brought out.

I wish the celebration and the publication all success.
