MESSAGE

It is indeed a matter of joy that the Calcutta High Court will soon be completing 150 years of its establishment. It is befitting that a Souvenir will be published to mark the occasion.

The Constitution of India envisages a pivotal role for the High Courts in the States. As the custodians and interpreters of the Constitution, the High Courts have unique responsibilities and powers. It is through faithful and judicious exercise of these that the avowed national goal of "Justice – social, economic and political" for all our citizens will be achieved in our time. Calcutta High Court by all standards is the premier High Court of the country and has produced a legion of legendary judges and lawyers, all of whom have made a deep and lasting impression on the legal landscape. I am confident that the members of the Calcutta High Court and the Bar will continue to maintain high standards of justice, integrity, honesty and impartiality in a fearless pursuit of justice for all.

My greetings to all members of the Bench and the Bar and best wishes for the success of the sesquicentennial celebrations.
