उप-राष्ट्रपति, भारत

VICE-PRESIDENT OF INDIA

MESSAGE

I am glad to know that the High Court, Calcutta, is celebrating its Sesquicentenary on April 21 - 22, 2012.

The Calcutta High Court has the unique distinction of being the first High Court of India. In the span of 150 years, many landmark judgements have been delivered on constitutional, civil and criminal matters.

I extend my greetings and good wishes to all the organizers and participants and wish the Sesquicentenary Celebrations all success.
